

Electronic Visa Applications

Most of the Brazilian Consulates in the U.S. are accepting only electronic visa applications. To apply for your visa, go to www.abe.mre.gov.br. This will take you to a site that is written in Portuguese. However, click on the North American continent on the map. You may have to do this on the next page as well. A map of the U.S. will appear. Click on the city in which you must apply for your visa. From this point forward, the page should be in English. Simply follow the prompts for visa applications.